

Adapted CULTURES

Book & Activity:
Ramadan

To be a culturally responsive teacher and truly accept, support and teach our wide range of students, it is important that we teach about different beliefs, holidays and people!

This FREEBIE introduces students to Muslims (and the religion of Islam), as well as an introduction into the month of Ramadan and the holiday of Eid al-Fitr!

Interactive Book

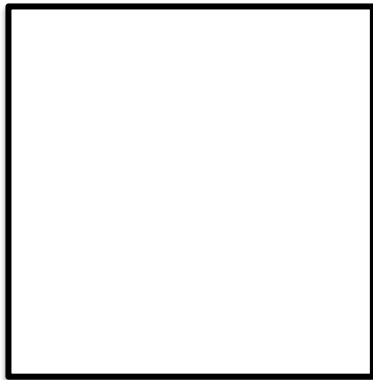

ADAPTED CULTURES

The month of RAMADAN

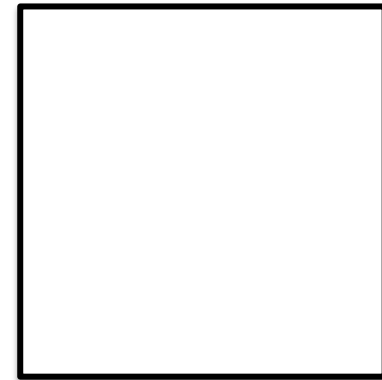

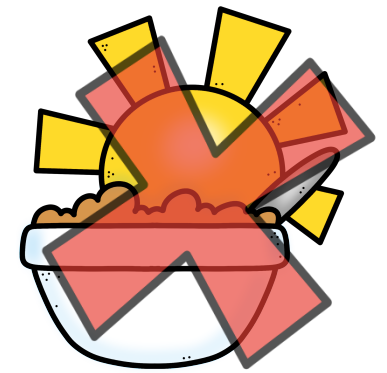

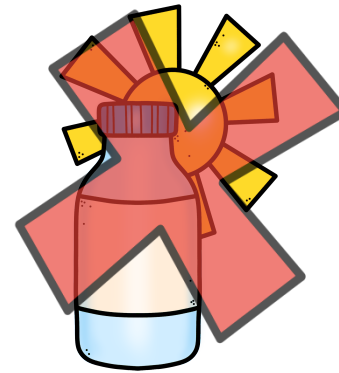

Cut off

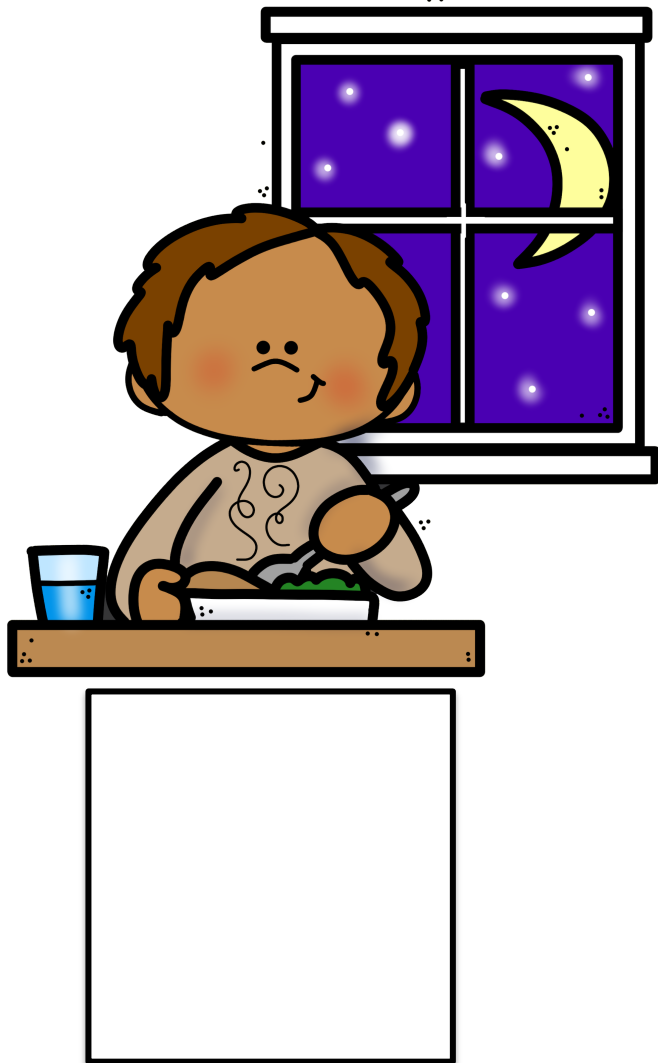

Ramadan is a special month that Muslims celebrate.

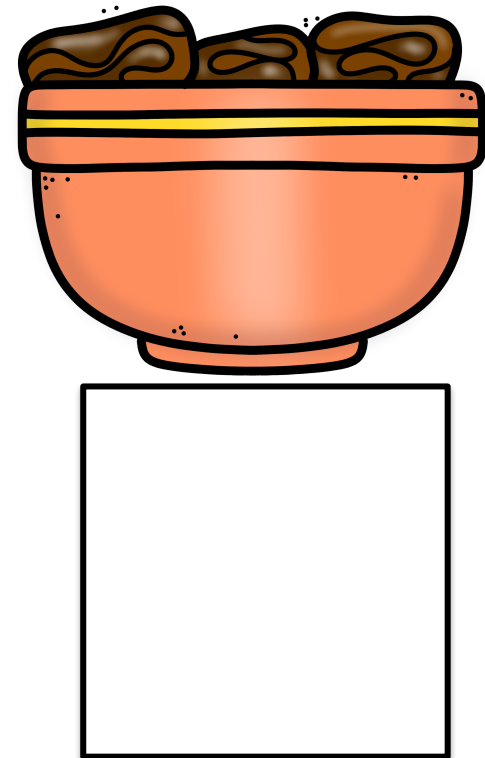

During this month, Muslims do not eat or drink during the day.

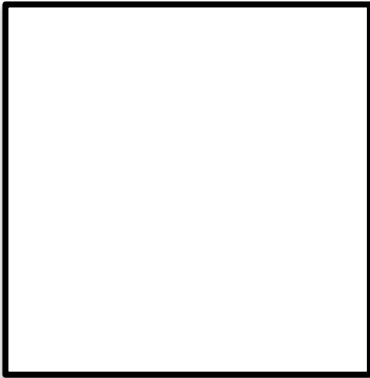

Some people will wake up before the sun rises and eat some food.

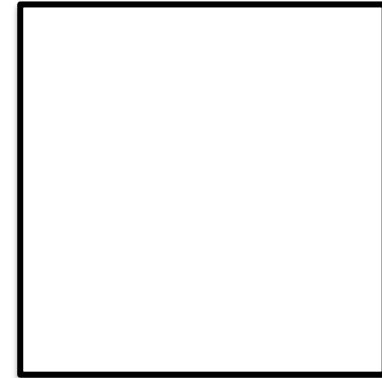

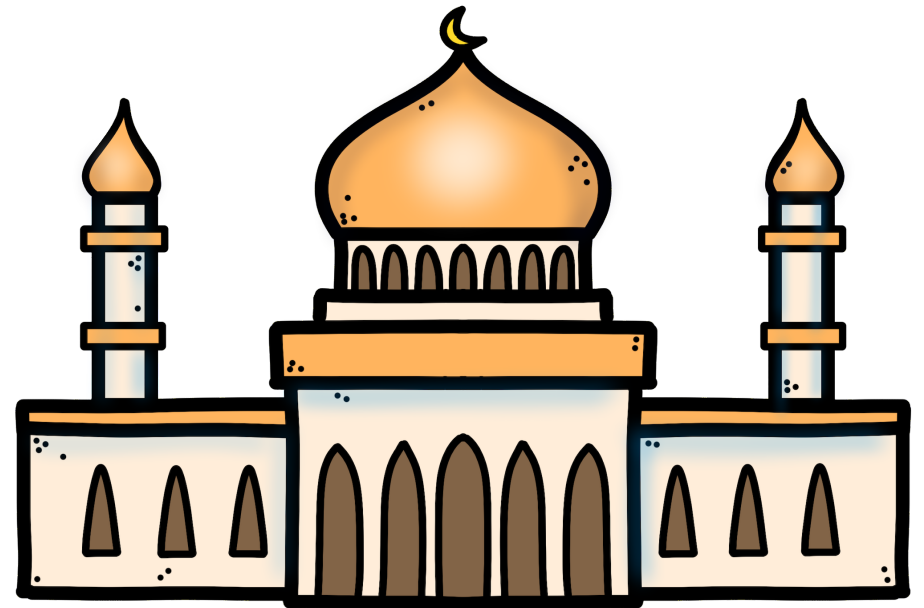

While the sun is up, they do not eat or drink. As soon as the sun sets, many Muslims will eat dates right away.

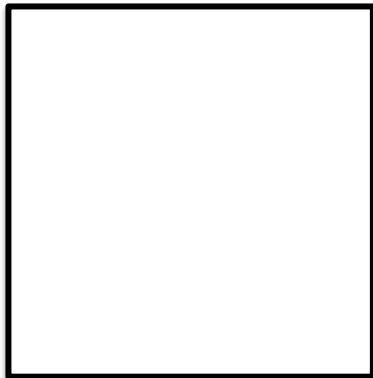

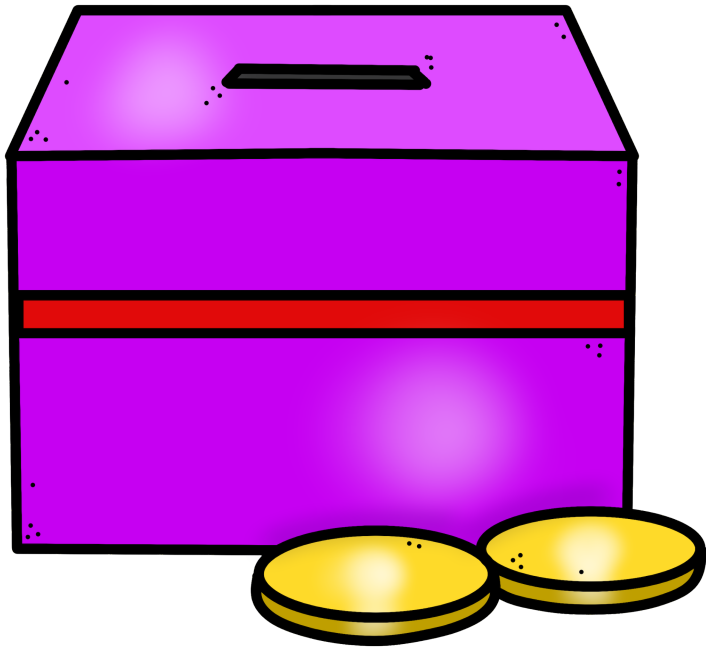

During the month of Ramadan, many people will pray more.

Some Muslims pray at a place called a mosque.

Ramadan is also a time to help people in need...

...and to focus on religion.

The end of Ramadan is called Eid Al-Fitr. This is a great holiday!

When we see people
who celebrate
Ramadan, we can say “Ramadan Kareem,” which means “Have a generous Ramadan”

RAMADAN
kareem

Storage page

Keep page whole. Store images on right side of the page

Cut into pieces

Coloring Page

This lantern is called a fanous, or a Ramadan lantern.
Color your own lanterns to celebrate Ramadan.

© Loving Souls & Superstar Goals

Follow me!

@lovingsouls.superstargoals

Loving Souls and Superstar Goals

Loving Souls and Superstar Goals

Thank you for downloading! Leave feedback to get points toward future TPT purchases!

I use the items from the following sellers in many of my products!

Paula Kim Studio