LET'S GO!

Grab your backpack and let's go!

The Unto® Little Explorers, Naomi and Daniel, are headed back to school. Of course, their animal friends, Lenny and Fiona, are coming too!

No matter where you go in the world, children love to learn. Some students study in a one-room schoolhouse while others head to a large building. Some children learn from a chalkboard while others use books or digital devices.

Without adequate supplies, it is harder for children to complete their daily assignments. Many children in tough places simply cannot access or afford the pencils, paper, glue and markers they need to learn and build a brighter future.

Together, we can help. By providing School Supply Backpacks and Kindness Kits, we enable local missionaries and church partners to meet the needs of students in their communities. With every set of school supplies, we are helping children grow and build a brighter future. Ready to come along?

Grab some crayons, scissors and glue. Let's get ready for school!

KINDNESS NOTES

Write a kindness note to your child and tuck it in their backpack or lunchbox.

You are kind. You are brave.

I am praying you have a great day!
